

FICTION WRITING CONTEST

Teachers are all storytellers at heart. Day in and day out, we spin convincing tales that get children to understand the relationship between words and meanings, nature and life, numbers and reason, history and the present...you get the picture! Now why don't you take a shot at writing a story that features the teaching life in some way?

Selected stories will be featured in our Teachers' Day issue in September and the top story will also receive a special prize! Stories should be around 2000 words in length and must feature a teacher as a central character.

Otherwise, no holds barred!

Your story should be original and should not have been published elsewhere, in print or online. We reserve the right to publish submissions online or in print. Please include your name, phone number and email id with your story.

The last date for entries is June 30, 2016. Please email your stories to editorial@teacherplus.org.
