Notice of Logo Design Competition for IISER Berhampur

The Indian Institute of Science Education and Research Berhampur calls for a design competition for development of its Institute Logo for the development of identity and branding, capturing and promoting the main value/s of the organization. Accordingly all are hereby invited to participate in the competition for design of the Institute Logo.

Introduction and Background

The Ministry of Human Resource Development (MHRD), Government of India, announced the establishment of Indian Institute of Science Education and Research (IISER) Berhampur for the academic session 2016-17 to promote quality education and cutting edge research in basic sciences and to provide a platform for the Faculty to engage in high-quality education, at undergraduate and postgraduate levels.

Recently, the Government of India notified ex-post facto approval for the establishment and operationalization of new Indian Institute of Science Education and Research at Berhampur. The Union Cabinet approved the setting up of IISER Berhampur at the transit / temporary campus at the academic-cum-workshop building of the Government ITI, Berhampur. The student strength intake for the academic year 2016-17 in the BS-MS course is 60 which will progressively go up and the cumulative student strength is envisaged as 665 in the 3rd year, including MS Degree, MS-Ph.D., Ph.D. and Postdoctoral Fellowships. The total cost of the project for the temporary campus is Rs. 152.79 crores. Ed.CIL, a PSU of Ministry of HRD, the Government of India has been asked to submit a proposal for preparation of a Detailed Project Report for the permanent campuses. Thereafter the process for setting up of the campus would start.

The IISER Bhopal has been vested with the responsibilities of mentoring IISER Berhampur by MHRD.

The Indian Institutes of Science Education and Research (IISERs) were created in 2006 through a proclamation of Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India, to promote quality education and research in basic sciences. Soon after the announcement, two of these Institutes at Pune and Kolkata, respectively, were started in 2006. This was followed by an Institute at Mohali (2007) and at Bhopal, Trivandrum in 2008 and Tirupati in 2015. Each IISER is a degree-granting autonomous institution with a prime focus to integrate science education and research, with a motive of attracting bright students and world-class faculty.

Indian Institute of Science Education and Research Berhampur will provide a platform for the faculty to engage in high-quality pedagogy, at both undergraduate and postgraduate levels, and to perform cutting edge research in frontier areas of basic sciences. The Institute is also committed to impart high moral and ethical values to students and create a genuine concern for social and environmental issues. With these set of broad objectives, it is believed that IISER Berhampur aims at emerging as a world-class Institute in the frontier areas of science.
