Poster Competition

Digital India is the name of the game. Indian government has allocated a huge budget for Digital India. No doubt our cities will become smarter, citizens IT savvy and we will move towards a connected society. The dream of the present Indian Government is also the dream of many of us. All of us dream of a better, transparent, hassle free living. Put on your thinking hat and come up with the digital India you envision. It could be either the entire country at large or could address specific topic related to this theme.

Topic for poster is " Digital India".

Posters will have to be displayed at the convention venue on the day of the convention.
